HARLEM RACING.

The Harlem track is drying out fast, and despite the heavy showers of Sunday the going yesterday was safe, and in fact good, although fast time was impossible on account of the course being dead. Dust was flying freely, however, after the last race, and if no rain falls before race time today the Proviso Stakes for two-year-olds will be run over a fairly fast track.

Yesterday's card was impaired to a certain extent by declaring off the fourth race, which was at a mile and a sixteenth and had four of the best horses at the track entered, but nevertheless the big Monday crowd seemed to be bubbling over with enthusiasm and took much interest in the sport.

On account of the fourth being declared off the first race was split so the regular six events advertised were run. The race split was for two-year-olds and as there was another race of this kind carded it made three for youngsters, and they all furnished good contests.

Steve L'Hommiedieu, the eastern plunger and horse owner, was on hand, and he helped to enliven things in the already busy betting ring.

The racing went along smoothly up to the last event, when the horse Rollins got himself into trouble. This inconsistent beast got his owners and jockey R. Narvaez in trouble over at Hawthorne, but they were restored to good standing when evidence was brought to the front showing that they had meant right and did their best to win, but the horse took a notion into his head not to extend himself in the mud and, just as he did yesterday, ran a disgraceful race.

"Lige" Bruster who trains Rollins is an honest turfman and Caywood, who rode him, has a good reputation, so the only way that Judge Hamilton saw out of the difficulty and to keep the public from being deceived by the notional Rollins was to refuse his entry, consequently hereafter the horse will not race at Harlem.

Maryland Reserve at 20 to 1 won the Rollins race by a nose at the wire from The Bobby, who was only a scant half length in front of Guess Me. Maryland Reserve swerved badly in the stretch and at the end was thoroughly tired, but managed to stick it out and old Mr. Havill, with a contented smile, took down the long end of the purse. Rollins was a 3 to 1 favorite, but never showed the least bit of speed and finished eighth. Guess Me would perhaps have won had not Boland lost so much ground swinging into the stretch. As it was the filly was going the strongest at the finish.

Woodstick and Luerana, recently purchased by H. T. Griffin and Albert Simons respectively in the east, more than won themselves out in their respective races.

Simons and Griffin are very friendly and both bet well on Woodstick in the second race, backing him from 10 to 1 down to 6 to 1. E. Ross rode the youngster and getting off second, went right on to the front, winning with something in reserve by a half length. Ross did some "funny work," monopolizing more of the track than he needed in the stretch, but he is a clever jockey and got away with it.

After scoring with Woodstick the Simons-Griffin combination went down hook, line and sinker on Luerana and the filly won handsomely for them. She is by Russell-Cheese Straw, and will undoubtedly be heard from later on. She is a fine looker, has a fine turn of speed and is as game as a pebble. Ross rode Luerana and shortly after the three-eighths post was passed he had to go to work on her in order to keep up. After being struck a few times with the whip the filly went to her horses like a flash, and turning into the straight was a half length in front. Then she tried to loaf, and once more

Ross had to punish her and once more the filly responded, eventually winning by three open lengths from Kid Cox, with Invictus, who had all kinds of bad racing luck, third.

Louis Ezell was ready and so was Clara Wooley, consequently the fourth race was an easy thing. The filly was backed from 3 to 1 down to 2 to 1, and well ridden by Narvaez "breezed home" about a length in front of Prince Plenty. Tom Barrett's Brownie Anderson, with Boland up, was favorite for this race, but she ran sluggishly as if stale, finishing a distant fourth. Mr. Barrett backed the filly and was much disappointed at her poor showing.

The first race was at four and a half furlongs for maiden two-year-old colts and geldings and Possart, well backed, cleverly disposed of The Butcher with Tommy Burns up. The wily Tommy beat the barrier and had The Butcher possessed the speed he would have "delivered the goods."

The second was the Woodstick race, and Bermuda Prince, backed from 6 to 1 down to 3 to 1, gave the ring a shock when he came galloping home in front of Elsie Venner and Insurrection in the third.

It was necessary to call the fourth event off owing to the sickness of Tenby, and Barney Schreiber would not let Fly by Night start as the gelding was slightly injured in his race of Saturday.

Starter Dwyer will refuse the entry of The Brave until the colt is better schooled to the barrier.

Word has been received at Harlem that J. W. O'Neill's Frank Bell and James Arthur's Hood's Brigade are sick at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS DERBY HORSES.

On Saturday next the great St. Louis Derby will be run, and that event is attracting widespread attention. Much local speculation on the result of this race is being indulged in, owing to the fact that two Missouri-bred horses are to compete with the best from "Old Kentucky" and that crackerjack, Sam Phillips, from "Sunny Tennessee." The horse that will represent the breeding interests of Missouri in this race is Dr. Crowley's Wounded Knee, by Foul Shot-Valencia. It was erroneously stated in Sunday's issue that Wounded Knee was bred at Barney Schreiber's farm at Woodlands.

True, Barney owns the sire, Foul Shot, but Wounded Knee was bred at Dr. Crowley's farm. The doctor owns Valencia, the dam of Wounded Knee, and she is a daughter of that world-renowned thoroughbred Yum-Yum. Wounded Knee has been thought by many local turfmen to have a good chance to land the $12,000 stake. He has all the best of the weights and will carry but 97 pounds over the mile and a half journey. He has been working excellently of late, and early Saturday morning was given a work-out over the Derby distance, with his weight up, and jockey Tally in the saddle. It will be worth while for those who will be at the Fair Grounds next Saturday to know exactly how he performed. He ran the full distance, finishing swinging, in 2:35. He negotiated the first mile in 1:14, and the last mile of the Derby distance was run in 1:46. This work, if repeated next Saturday, will give Dr. Crowley's brown colt an excellent chance in the big race.

Trainer George Walker says he will send Sam Phillips to the post fit to run the race of his life. This good three-year-old, son of St. Florian-Reckon, will undoubtedly be a post favorite, owing to the excellent form he has shown so far this season. The Schorr colt looks in fine trim, and he breezed a mile Saturday morning as though he was fit to run the race of his

Time, 251, 491, 1:151.

Winner—B. f. by Fonso—Lake Breeze. Went to post at 2:37. At post 39 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. It was an unruly lot at the post. Eberlee threw his first rider, Berman, breaking his leg. Lake Fonso regained her speed suddenly and won without an effort. Brightie S. did as well as could be expected, after exhausting herself at the post. Castle did fairly well. Match Box ran his race at the post. Suave ran a half at speed in a breakaway.

Scratched—18389 Avatar, 101; 18363 Louisville Belle, 97.

Overweights—Lake Fonso, 5 pounds; Match Box, 34; Manilla, 5.

Lake Fonso, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Brightie S., place, 3 to 2; show, 4 to 5. Castle, show, 4 to 1. Match Box, place, 2 to 1; show, evens.

Time, 241, 491, 1:02.

Winner—B. f. by Judge Murray—Spinster. Went to post at 3:20. Off at the first break to a fair start. Won handily; second driving. Regina Lee fairly ran over the field in the end, but had to be whipped early to get up. Erema is a quick breaker, but weakened when challenged. Great Star ran an excellent race. Queen Carnival could never get up. Anna Bain was never in the hunt. Lyror Bell did not run her race.

Overweights—Bean, 1 pound.

Regina Lee, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Erema, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Great Star, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 25, 491, 1:141, 1:401.

Winner—Ch. f. by Montana Regent—Nettie Beatrice. Went to post at 4:05. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second easily. Nettie Regent is in fine form, was best and went to the front when ready. Charley O'Brien again ran a good race and is an improving colt. Miss Dede ran in much improved form. Kentucky Farmer was hard ridden all the way. Anna Bain is not at her best, and was not ready. Unsightly has possibly had too much racing, at any rate her race was extremely bad.

Overweights—Nettie Regent, 1 pound; Kentucky Farmer, 3; Anna Bain, 3.

Nettie Regent, place, evens; show, out. Charley O'Brien, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Miss Dede, show, 6 to 1. Anna Bain, place, evens; show, out.

ST. LOUIS DERBY HORSES.

life. In his last race, the Club Members' Handicap, he finished a good fourth, but was conceding many pounds to his competitors. Those who watched Phillips closely at the finish of this race say he was all out, and question his ability to go the full Derby distance, but that race may have put him in proper trim to run the full mile and a half next Saturday.

Pat Dunne has wired Judge Joseph A.
Murphy that he will be on hand next Saturday with Benalder. This son of Riley and Emma III. has never secured brackets, but Pat Dunne is acknowledged to be such a wise turfman that Benalder must have displayed good qualities in his work, or Dunne would not think of shipping him here from Chicago. Private advices from Chicago say: "Benalder works like Pink Coat did two years ago."

Florizar and Highland Lad are expected.
This pair is owned by the Scoggin Bros., and will be well backed in the speculation on the Derby race. Florizar will pack an impost of 125 pounds, but if the good son of Florist runs as true as he did when he won the Tennessee Derby he will be knocking at the door for the Derby check.

Doctor Cave, another Missouri-bred colt, will probably start. He has speed, and if he can last the distance the long-shot players may have a chance to cash on Keith & Patton's son of Regalis and Maud B. Waldeck and Duke of Melbourne are also carded to go next Saturday.
The Duke of Melbourne's work has been witnessed by the Fair Grounds patrons, while Wal-deck's ability is at present unknown. St. Louis

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. E. Madden has purchased of the Prince of Wales the brown colt Sandringham, foaled 1896, by St. Simon—Perdita II., by Hampton, out of Hermione, by Young Melbourne. Sandringham is the full brother of the Derby winners Persimmon and Diamond Jubilee, and was a very highly tried yearling but would not stand training. The terms of the sale are private, but the supposition is a good round sum was paid for the horse. He will go in the stud at Mr. Madden's Hamburg Farm, near Lexington, Ky.

Previous, b. h. 5, by Meddler—Sunnyside, by Mortemer, out of Sly Dance, by War Dance, the property of A. Featherstone, has been sent to Kentucky and turned out at the Kenmore Farm.
He came east with Mr. Featherstone's other horses, but bowed a tendon and will be permanently retired to the stud at Kenmore. His breeding and performances should make him a popular and successful sire.

Went to post at 5:23. At post 7 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving to the limit and High Noon stood the drive well, but Lord Zeni closed a big gap and would have won in another stride. Overton made his run too late. Zelmet ran to the mark. Honeywood also ran a creditable race. The others were in the wrong company.

Scratched—18284 Richardson, 101; 18221 Our Lida, 99; 18363 Lexoline, 90; 15778 Marion Lynch, 88; 18360 Polly Bixby, 88.

Overweights—Honeywood, 5 pounds.
High Noon, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Lord Zeni, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Zelmet, place, 1 to 3; show, out.

18456. SIXTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $250. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

*Disqualified for foul.

Time, 25:1, 50, 1:02:1, 1:16.

Winner—Ch. g. by Regalis—Rosalia.

Went to post at 5:55. At post 10 minutes. Start good for all but Ned. Won easily; the next three were driving. Mound City was best and finished fast through the stretch. Oily Gammon closed a big gap and finished strongly. The jockey on Fair Deceiver got off well but pulled up, thinking it was no start, losing some of his early advantage. Sakatuck tired and swerved into Fair Deceiver in the stretch, throwing her out of the race.

Scratched—15890 Sim W. 106; 13211 Uncle Steve, 101; 18427 Flop, 97; 17228 Statira, 96.

Overweights—Mound City, 4 pounds; Jeannot, 3.

Winner—Blk. c. by Pontico—Mary W.

Went to post at 2:15. Off at the first break to a poor start. Won handily at the end after an early drive; second and third doing their best. Possart was the best and ran an improved race. Still the last time he ran it was in the mud and in such going he could not do his best. The Butcher beat the barrier, but is not of much account and this advantage was of little use to him. Possart interfered a trifle with The Butcher in the stretch, but not enough to call for judicial action. Lasance ran a fair race, finishing strongly. Senator Joe tired at the end.

Scratched—Isaac Hopper, 110; 18348 Santalus, 110; Jimenez, 110; 17834 Leo Newell, 110.

Possart, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. The Butcher, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Lasance, show, 2 to 1. Senator Joe, place 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Fiddlesticks—Wood Nymph.

Went to post at 2:30. Off at the first break to a good start. Won hand ridden and all out; there was a lot of sharp action behind the winner. Woodstick got away well on his stride, had clear sailing, was lucky and took the shortest route. Ross resorted to questionable tactics with him in the stretch, monopolizing more of the track than really belonged to him. Galanthus made a good showing, and although hemmed in on the rail in the last fifty yards, made a strong bid. Considering it was Prince of Delight's initial start he ran a good race, making up ground throughout. El Piloto looked dangerous on the turn, but tired badly through the stretch. Hernando is a good looker by Hanover, but showed nothing sensational in this race, but perhaps can do better.

Overweights—Al Brown, 4 pounds.

Winner—Br. c. by Bermuda—Queen Isabella.

Went to post at 3:20. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third were doing their best. Bermuda Prince improved considerably since his last race, and when at his best he is probably a good, useful selling plate. Elsie Venner was bumped several times during the journey, but despite this she ran a good game race. Insurrection was pinched off and lost much ground on the far turn, but for this she would have given the winner a stout argument. Al Caskey does not seem to amount to much. Daisy O. showed speed to the head of the stretch, but then stopped badly. Mandamus also tired badly after going a half. Sorrel Rose ran a good race.

Corrected weights—Al Caskey, 104.

Overweights—Sorrel Rose, 2 pounds.

Bermuda Prince, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Elsie Venner, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Insurrection, show, evens. Al Caskey, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by Linden—Miss Galop.

Went to post at 3:50. Off at the first break to a good start for all but Talma. Won cleverly. It was a terrific drive for second place. Clara Wooley is a good filly, was well handled and when Narvaez got ready he shot her to the front like a flash. Prince Plenty is a big, awkward fellow that will improve with racing. He raced Wax into subjection in the first half and then, under punishment, hung on gamely at the end. Wax ran a fair race, but is not game and at the finish was tired enough to lie down. Brownie Anderson was dull of speed and seemed stale. She has not been raced much, but is perhaps drummed too much in her work. Talma was up in the air and had no chance when the barrier went up.

Scratched—17923 Fidel Youlin, 102.

Clara Wooley, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Prince Plenty, place, 2½ to 1; show, evens. Wax, show, 7 to 10. Brownie Anderson, place, 4 to 5; show, out.

Winner—B. f. by Russell—Cheese Straw.

Went to post at 4:30. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won with considerable reserve after an early drive; the next five were driving hard. Lucerana is a good, game filly of fair class, was well ridden, and won like a lady. She was under severe punishment from the three-furlongs post home, and can be marked to beat the best youngsters at the track. Kid Cox did his best. Invictus had a rough journey, being badly interfered with on the far turn and again on the stretch turn. Money Muss has no excuses other than that the route was too long. He and Denizulu both tired badly in the stretch. Sannazaro ran better than the figures show. He tried to move up several times during the race, but each time was sharply shut off. Icon was coming fast at the end.

Scratched—18053 Gibson Girl, 103.

Overweights—The Brave, 2 pounds; Money Muss, 3.

Lucerana, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Kid Cox, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Invictus, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Bramble—Sister Sue.

Went to post at 5:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. The first three finished abreast and were driving to the limit. Maryland Reserve was lucky throughout and his win was considerable of an accident. He was clear of everything when he swung into the stretch, but Grimes let him swerve and the gelding darted from the center of the track to the rail, coming close to striking and interfering with The Bobby. The latter ran a good, game race and would have won in a few more strides. Guess Me, on the extreme outside, finished with a tremendous rush. Galileo ran fairly well. Rollins was dull of speed, and for this poor showing the judges will refuse his entry in the future. Glonoine finished stoutly. Duty showed some speed.

Overweights—Miss Patron, 2 pounds; Schnell-l'fr, 3; The Bobby, 4.

Maryland Reserve, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1. The Bobby, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Guess Me, show, evens. Rollins, place 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 15 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Prestidigitator was well in motion when the flag fell, had plenty of speed and disposed of Kamara with something left. The latter ran well and hung on longer than usual. Buffoon had no excuse and ran his race. Tulane ran well for five furlongs then shut up. Oliver Mc and Alsike did well. Scratched—(18216) Meehanus, 121; 18400 Marblehead, 107; 12992 Friendship, 103.
Prestidigitator, place, 2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Kamara, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Buffoon, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by St. Saviour—Louise.
Went to post at 3:10. At post 24 minutes. Start bad won driving; second easily. Nansen appeared to be winning easily in the stretch but tired in the last few strides. Lord Baltimore was prominent all the way. He ran a fine race and got up just in time. Cyrano got off badly and made up much ground. Commander Miller ran a good race and was short. Eileen Daly was raced to exhaustion in front.
Scratched—18325 Rochester, 109; 18123 Iroquois Belle, 107; 13717 Timely, 107.
Lord Baltimore, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Nansen, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Cyrano, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. c. by Eureka—Addie Mc.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving. Mc-Addie was much the best and showed great speed, but was tiring at the end. Fair Rosamond should have secured second place but for Frase rode a poor finish. All Green was all out at the end.
Scratched—18415 Blues, 115; 18358 Malden, 112; 17467 Xerxes, 107; 18399 Fleetwing, 104; 18273 Ida Corby, 104.

Winner—B. c. by His Highness—Alhada.
Went to post at 4:35. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. His light weight aided Hesper, and he was well ridden by Rauch, but he was tired and stopping at the close. Sky Scrapper is a consistent filly and showed her usual speed, but tired in the final rush. Kinnickinnick finished fast, but was poorly handled. Half Time ran his race at the post. King Barleycorn ran well for a mile, but tired in the final sixteenth.
Scratched—18309 Charentus, 105; 18155 Jack Point, 104; 18311 Merry Prince, 103; 18357 Lo-thario, 101; (18127) Bangor, 101; 18359 Post Haste, 86.

Winner—B. c. by Hanover—Anna Gray.
Went to post at 5:10. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Holstein was much the best and could have won further off. Cresson ran a good race and would have been closer to the winner but Bullman eased him in the final strides. It was a poor lot behind the first two.
Scratched—18418 Admiral Pepper, 112; 18354 Humboldt, 112; 18418 Jils Greenwood, 109.
Holstein, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Cresson, place, 7 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Lady Georgiana, show, 3 to 1. Competitor, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

18450 SIXTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. $800 added. 3-year-olds and upward.

Winner—B. h. by St. Andrew—Blue Dress.
Went to post at 5:40. At post 5 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving to the limit. Blue Devil is a game horse and in fine form. He handled the weight well and stood the hard drive, and can evidently stay. Hammock is improving fast and his race was a good one. Bangor and Charentus ran to their best form. Montanic showed much speed for six furlongs, but tired badly in the stretch run.
Scratched—18352 Merito, 111; 18274 Hardy, 97.
Blue Devil, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Hammock, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Bangor, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Charentus, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.
